

What happens if I did not exercise the Option which I had paid before/on the agreed due date?

What happens if I did not exercise the Option which I had paid before/on the agreed due date?

If you do not exercise the Option within the validity period stated, the Option would expire and your seller is entitled to forfeit the option money and sell the property to another buyer.